

FedArb™ (Federal Arbitration, Inc.) is an ADR company that specializes in arbitration and mediation services for complex commercial cases.

What makes us different?

- FedArb has a roster of 50 former federal judges who are experts in various areas of law.
- FedArb’s ADR service includes both mediation and arbitration services. Our arbitration rules combine the benefits of the federal court system (experienced judges whose decisions are based on judicial precedent) while preserving all the benefits of arbitration (judge selection, speed, confidentiality, cost efficiency, customization, and enforceability).
- We have options for expedited (Fast Track™) arbitration and at the parties’ request, can provide Fixed Price™ arbitration with a date certain for completion.
- FedArb has rules familiar to most litigators, based on the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP), the Federal Rules of Evidence (FRE) and the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure (FRAP). These rules are subject to modification by agreement of the parties.
- Proprietary case management software provides customized case status reports, and case managers are available to assist all parties 7 days a week with extended morning and evening hours.

“I have been part of FedArb’s program since leaving the bench. They provide outstanding service in the ADR industry and I have used them for many cases, including one in which I acted as a Special Master involving numerous parties and over 20 mediations. They represent the best in ADR services in the resolution or disposition of significant disputes.”

Hon. David Folsom (United States District Judge Eastern District of Texas from 1995 to 2012)

“Soon after taking full retirement in March 2012, I joined the FedArb roster of federal judges at the suggestion of another member of the group and have been very pleased with my decision. FedArb’s professionalism, administrative services and management team are very impressive. A party seeking the mediation and arbitration of complex civil cases should give FedArb strong consideration.”

Hon. Charles B. Renfrew (United States District Judge Northern District of California from 1972 to 1980)

The panel members of FedArb are among the ablest of the mediators and arbitrators with whom I have dealt. My experiences with FedArb have all been positive.
